Merrily Mazza successfully passed Colorado’s first Climate Bill of Rights in Lafayette, CO which establishes the residents’ right to a healthy climate and bans fracking and fracking-related infrastructure as a violation of that right.

Featuring Merrily Mazza - Councilwoman from Lafayette, CO

As an representative, Merrily Mazza has first hand experience on the front lines trying to protect her community from harms sanctioned by the Corporate State of Colorado.

Oct. 1 - Medina 6:30 – 8:30 PM
Montville Township Town Hall
6665 Wadsworth Rd (Rte 57)
Medina, Ohio

Oct. 2 - Athens 5:00 – 7:00
Ohio University
Computer Services Center (CSC) 121B
Athens, Ohio

Oct. 3 - Columbus 3:00 -and- 7:00
3:00 PM - Columbus State Community College, Rm TBA
7:00 PM - Ms Mazza recounts Lafayette’s story prior to screening of film “We the People 2.0”

Oct. 4 - Bowling Green 7:30 – 9:30 PM
Bowling Green State University
Olscamp Hall 115
Bowling Green, Ohio

Oct. 5 - Youngstown 7:00 – 9:00 PM
Youngstown State University
Cushwa Hall B100
Youngstown, Ohio

Colorado’s Front Range is an oil & gas fracking zone. Like many other communities across the nation, local residents, attempting to protect their health, safety and welfare from toxic industrial activity, have come to the inevitable intersection of democracy and corporate power.